FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stitches or pain in side, back gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative. One laxative; two or three are cathartics.

Nasal CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm
cleans, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drug Store; or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

Senator and Mrs. Platt.

Senator Platt in a state of collapse, was borne out of the Hotel Gotham in New York yesterday and carried off to his suite of private offices in the United States Express Company's building, at 49 Broadway, just one hour before the time of the expected arrival of his business wife, coming hot-foot from the Platt estate near Highland Mills, with the avowed intention of taking her proper and wifely place at the side of her aged husband.

But he might as well have stayed in bed, for Mrs. Platt changed her mind and did not come to town. She was still at Toga Lodge yesterday afternoon, boiling mad.

Mrs. Platt's intention to rejoin her husband was due to the knowledge that had come to her within the past 24 hours that Senator Platt has been disposing of his fortune.

Mrs. Platt thinks she can upset this arrangement if she secures an interview with the aged Senator as she once upset the plans of the Senator's sons to prevent him from marrying her.

The runaway halted at the station while Mrs. Platt had a whispered conversation with the railroad agent. Then she started along Railroad avenue. Behind a telephone post near Crownwell's yard a man was hiding with a camera. As he focused his lens on the approaching runaway Mrs. Platt saw him. Without waiting for the horses to check their speed she gathered her skirts about her, leaped into the road and charged the photographer. She knocked his picture machine flying with a blow of her gloved right hand. As the man stooped to gather up the box she slapped him twice in the face.

"There," panted the angry woman as he dodged back, "I guess that will stop this business."

Then she walked back to the runaway, jumped in and was driven away to the Lodge. As soon as she was inside the gates a chain was put across the drive, and husky farmhands mounted guard, refusing admittance to all comers.

Priest Elopes.

A case resembling the famous Delarue mystery, which recently caused such a sensation in France, has aroused interest in Rome. A few days ago it was announced that Father Virginio Carones, of the Camillini Order, rector of the aristocratic Church of the Santa Maria Maddalena, belonging to the Ministri degli Infermi, a noble brotherhood of priests, founded by St. Camillo Lellis in 1584, had resigned from the priesthood and disappeared. It has now been discovered that the priest fled from Italy with a beautiful girl belonging to a distinguished family, and it is reported that they are on their way to the United States. Carones, who is young, tall, and handsome, served in the army, where he was attached to an artillery regiment, and rose to the rank of lieutenant. After leaving the army he became rector of the Church of the Santa Maria Maddalena, but was recalled to the colors for temporary service, and, it is stated, managed to combine his two duties. Returning at an early hour from the artillery barracks, he would put his monk's robe over his uniform, and in this manner celebrated mass. He was compeller to make the alteration in his costume so hastily that he was unable to take off his military boots, and when kneeling before the altar the congregation sometimes caught glimpses of his spurs beneath his gown. The general of Camillini Order yesterday publicly stated that Father Carones went to New York to engage in the work of assisting Italian immigrants there.

Minister Charged with Bigamy.

Rev. George Lister Reynolds, aged forty-two years, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Fawcett, Pa., a suburb of Elmira, N. Y., and Miss Clara Esther Ware, aged twenty-three years, former organist of his church, were arrested at Columbus, Ohio, last night by detectives. Today the minister will be formally charged with bigamy. The young woman's relatives at Elmira have been notified, and are expected to come for her. The minister and the woman blame his wife, who is eight years older than he. The minister says she made life a burden for him, and often threatened to expose him at prayer meetings for alleged misconduct. In telling his story, he said, with bitterness in his voice, "Finally, this young girl came into my life. Then, I know I did wrong, but I could not help it." The girl, who seems to be almost heart-broken, says they left their home town on different trains, and met at Troy, N. Y., and from there they went to Pittsburgh. Subsequently, they went to Columbus. Upon their arrival there they concluded to get married. The Rev. Mr. Reynolds gave his residence as Deposit, N. Y., and that of the young woman as Columbus. She was given an Ohio residence by him in order to comply with the Ohio laws, which require that the bride be a resident of the State. Following their marriage, the two secured employment in the chicken department of a large stock farm near Columbus.

The Formal FALL OPENING

Continues

The entire store is virtually a congress of correct style.

These exhibits of Women's Dress Goods, Silks, Trimmings and Dress Accessories are the criterion of fashion for Fall, 1906.

From all sides comment of approval and delight is brought to us; from everyone comes the acknowledgment that these showings are supremely the authoritative expression of the foreign and domestic dress idea for the coming season.

That they outclass every exhibit we have held in former years is undeniable.

That they are far superior to any style showing of this season is also evident.

This may be attributed to our ceaseless energy, our resources and prestige, together with advantageous trade connections which give us access to the foremost fashion creators.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds.

We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets are also best placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in out-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

You will find plenty of use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z-K Gold Chain.
